GREENEVILLE

Funeral of Miss Anna Isabel Kilday—Personal and Notes.

At 10 o'clock Monday morning the funeral of Anna Isabel, youngest daughter of Edward and Mary Downey Kilday, took place from her late home, 11 Ninth street. The service at St. Mary's church were conducted by Rev. J. H. Fitzmaurice, who sang the requiem mass. The bearers were Joseph F. Moran, Nicholas Spellman, Jr., Joseph I. Yerrington and William J. Feller. The beautiful Land on High was most impressively sung by Nicholas Spellman, Jr., at the close of the mass. Burial was in the family plot at St. Joseph's cemetery. For the past several years Miss Kilday was employed as desk girl in the make-up room of the United States Finishing company. As requested by the United States Finishing company the body of Miss Kilday was borne to St. Joseph's cemetery by North Main street so as to pass the plant where she had been employed. The plant was closed down during the funeral. Many floral forms entirely covering the family plot were sent, expressing the esteem in which the deceased was held by all who knew her. The sad ending of a young life so full of promise leaves all who loved her to mourn her loss.

Undertakers Cummings & Ring had charge of the funeral arrangements.

January Social.

At the January social at the Greenville Congregational church on this coming Friday evening, members of the Good Will Bible class will provide the entertainment.

Personals.

Frank Burke and William Coughlin have returned to the studies at the Catholic University, Washington, D. C., after passing the vacation here.

Rev. Dr. Patrick J. McCormick has returned to Washington, D. C., after passing the Christmas vacation with his mother here.

TAFTVILLE

Funeral of Edward F. Keating of New London took place here Monday morning—Personal and Notes.

Edward Francis Keating of New London died on New Year's day in Norwich after an illness of several months. He was born in Montville, 36 years ago the son of Patrick and Johanna Keating and has been employed as a baker in the C. D. Bove bakery factory of New London.

He is survived by one brother, William Keating, and five sisters: Mrs. Peter Kelley of Massachusetts; Mrs. John Keefe, Taftville; Mrs. John Carney, New London; Mrs. William McCormick and Mrs. Thomas McCormick of Riverpoint, R. I.

The funeral took place Monday morning from the home of his sister, Mrs. John Keefe on South A street at 9 o'clock. At service conducted in Sacred Heart church, Rev. U. O. Belloc officiated. The bearers were John Keefe, Thomas McCormick, John Carney and John Kelley. Burial was in the Jewett City cemetery.

Undertaker George G. Grant had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Basketball Series With Jewett City.

Manager Roy of the basketball team has arranged a series with the Jewett City team and the first game will be played at Jewett City on January 12. As the Jewett City team has had so far this season a good record and has displayed good team work, the fans here expect to see a top notch series.

Hustlers Won.

In the preliminary game New Year's basketball team won from the Hustlers C. A. team by the score of 2 to 1-3. The score which was very low was due

ANOTHER SALE ON FRANKLIN STREET

Emil M. Fox Buys New Location for Providence Bakery—Purchases Fitzpatrick Property—is to Build Modern Bakery to be Ready in 60 Days.

Late on Monday afternoon Emil M. Fox, proprietor of the Providence bakery, purchased the James T. Fitzpatrick property, No. 52 Franklin street, which will furnish him a place to which to remove his bakery within the next 60 days, as he has already sold his present location a little further north on Franklin street to the Hopkins & Allen Arms company.

The property which he has purchased is a plot 30 feet front, 25 feet rear and 104 feet deep, having on it a four-story brick building facing on the street and covering about half the lot. The building is occupied on the ground floor by the bakery of Mrs. Maria D. Robinson and on the three upper floors by tenements.

Mrs. Robinson, who has a lease to run the bakery, is to continue to occupy the premises she now has, as no terms could be agreed upon by which she would give up her lease.

"Mr. Fox will begin at once the building of a two-story brick building on the rear part of the lot, which he will use for his bakery, and he was in consultation on Monday evening with Architect C. H. Preston on the plans for the new building. It will have a front measurement of 30 feet, rear 55 feet, and depth of 65 feet. It can be reached by wagons for delivery by a right of way from Chestnut street to the rear of the building.

Mr. Fox also has negotiations under way by which he will secure a Franklin street store on one side or the other of the building he has bought.

His plans for building a bakery are to put in the most modern and up-to-date equipment, two tile ovens having already been ordered from a Pittsburgh concern to be put in as fast as the building is ready for them, as he has only 60 days to stay in his former location. The new building which he is to construct will include the ovens, dough mixers, molders, dividers and proofing rooms, the whole equipment making it possible for the dough to pass through the various processes until it comes out of the oven without once being touched by hand after it has gone into the mixers.

What is to be done with the upper part of the front building has not been fully decided, but it is probable that the tenements in it will be improved and will be continued in tenement form for renting purposes.

In completing the arrangements for the sale there have been some perplexing details to be settled and the ultimate success of the deal was made possible by the indefatigable work of John A. Moran, who has been the real estate broker in the transaction.

SCOUTS WILL HEAR

REGULATION WAR WHOO.

Chief Rain-in-the-Face to Perform the Battle Yell for Their Benefit.

Have any of the Norwich Boy Scouts heard the Indian war whoop? If they haven't, they will have a chance to hear one, a hair-raising whoop, and possibly several of them, at the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday evening when Cha-Ka-Wah-Ka-Nah-Ta will give the scouts a demonstration of the Indian war whoop as practiced by the Cherokee Indians in Oklahoma. Cha-Ka-Wah-Ka-Nah-Ta, Chief Rain-in-the-Face, as he is better known to his white friends, will not only give his war whoop but will also show the boys how the wrongdoers of the tribe to which he belongs are punished on a torture machine. The torture machine consists of a board of the tribe to which he belongs is pointed nails have been driven so that the points of the nails form a huge bow which the Indian is compelled to lay as punishment for his wrong-doing. The Indian chief is also training eight of the Boy Scouts in dances and Indian ceremonies which are to be carried out for the benefit of all the scouts in the city.

In addition to Cha-Ka-Wah-Ka-Nah-Ta will give the boys a demonstration of the Indian dance for the recovery of Indian braves who are injured in the regular monthly social of the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The programme is to start at 8 o'clock.

ALPHA SIGMAS ANNUAL

NEW YEAR'S PARTY

Given at Parlor of Second Congregational Church.

The Alpha Sigmas of the Second Congregational church held their annual New Year's party in the church parlors on Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock. A banquet was served and an informal social followed. There were vocal selections by Miss Jennie Dearing, Miss Nina Perry, Miss Hazel Anderson, Miss Louise Fitzpatrick and Miss Elizabeth Lanz, all joining in the choruses. Each member received a pretty New Year's favor. The committee in charge comprised Mrs. F. A. Bill, Mrs. Daniel S. Haviland, Miss Haviland and the president, Miss Mollie Kampf.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Vaudeville and Moving Pictures. The Little Heiress, a sparkling musical comedy, and The Mixup, a Charlie Chaplin movie, attracted crowded houses at both evening performances on Monday at the Auditorium. The musical comedy company comprising two comedians and eight pretty girls were the headlines on the vaudeville bill and they played for nearly a half hour. The comedians had an original and new line of comedy that hit the mark every time and their part of the programme was well balanced by a number of very pretty songs. Unusually attractive comedians were in evidence.

Andrew Visocchi presented an accordion act that got him a big hand and Harry Taylor mounted the stage and made a favorable impression. The Charlie Chaplin picture was a part of the programme which was popular comedy and was well received. The other picture was Poor Schmaltz.

Indian Chief Will Speak to Boys.

Chief Rain-in-the-Face, the Cherokee Indian who is visiting in Norwich, will be the speaker at the boys' hour Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. As this is the first of the meetings of 1916, Boys' Secretary J. H. Ely hopes to see a record-breaking crowd of boys on hand.

to poor shooting, although the game was fast and rather rough. The Hustlers' lineup follows:

M. Murphy and J. Murphy forwards, Leopold center, Donohue and Troeg guards.

E. Yeauw Taken Sick.
E. Yeauw, second hand in the carding room at the Ponemah mill, has gone to his home in New Bedford. Mr. Yeauw was forced to leave his work Monday morning owing to an attack of the grip.

Personals.

Miss Katherine McCarthy of Providence, R. I., is visiting for a few days here.

Edward Bergeron of Bristol, Conn., spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives.

Robert Brown who has been visiting with relatives here has returned to his studies at Springfield college.

Mr. and Mrs. William White of New York have returned after spending a few days with Mr. White's relatives on South A street.

Miss Katherine Phelan of South-bridge, Mass., returned Monday after visiting a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Phelan of South A street.

Carpenters from out of town started to work in Mill No. 2 of the Ponemah mill, Monday afternoon. They are working on the elevator which is under construction.
